WARNS FARMERS OF PEAR ENEMY

Advisor Myszka Tells Of Blight Which Is Now Threatening

(By C. S. Myszka)

The appearance of pear blight in a few of the Russian river valley orchards, as well as outlying districts, makes it incumbent upon pear growers to keep on a vigilant watch for the disease in their own orchards. "Blight is a preventable disease." It is caused by a bacterial organism which travels in the outer bark but finally penetrates inwardly and kills the cambium layer. This disease is distinguished by a sudden wilting of the affected twigs and blossoms and the darkened color of the bark. The leaves turn black and do not fall off. Accompanying these symptoms may be found beads of gum, which exude from the leaf-stems, twigs and branch cankers.

Blight spreads mainly by insects, but may be blown short distances by misty winds or may be carried down by rain from higher portions of the tree or through dripping of the gum.

Method Of Treatment.

Cleaning up holdover blight is the best means of prevention. This may be done during the fall and winter months. The only known way of controlling active forms in the summer time is by cutting it out and destroying the diseased wood by fire. The diseased portions should be removed six to 24 inches below the canker and the wood and tools disinfected with a good disinfectant. Mercury-glycerine solution is recommended for this purpose and should be smeared on the tools and cuts with a brush 1½ inches wide. The solution may be made up as follows: Dissolve eight one-half gram tablets of cyanide of mercury and eight one-half gram tablets of bichloride of mercury in one pint of water and to this add three pints of cheap commercial glycerine. Keep the solution in a glass jar, never in a metal container.

Creates Great Loss.

Blight is the great white plague of the fruit industry, which causes a loss of $25,000,000 annually to this country. If a foreign foe should invade the country and demand one-tenth of this amount, millions would be expended on an army to defeat it. Fighting blight is a community matter and growers living in an infected district should organize and go after it. Neighbors should co-operate in cleaning up their orchards in order to prevent the spreading of this infection. The county horticultural commissioner is empowered with police duties to assist in clean-up work. Request his services where needed. Eternal vigilance is the price of clean orchards.

FRANK C. DREW DEAD —WELL KNOWN LAWYER

Last Time He Visited He Served Term For Contempt

Saturday morning last death claimed Frank C. Drew, San Francisco lawyer and politician at his home in that city. Heart disease from which Mr. Drew had suffered since December was the cause of death. Deceased was about 63 years of age. Born in San Jose, May 31, 1861, Mr. Drew went to San Francisco with his parents and attended the Lincoln grammar school, graduating in 1876. The necessity of earning a living compelled him to leave the boys' high school after his second year, although he had been selling newspapers in an effort to continue his schooling. At 17 he became a job printer in the publishing house of Bacon & Co.

Aid To Governor In Early Manhood.

Studying shorthand and stenography nights, he obtained a clerical position with Eppinger & Co., wheat operators. Later he entered the employ of Siegfried & Brandenstein, tea importers. Mr. Drew later became a compositor and proofreader for a local morning paper.

At 29 he was a stenographer in the law office of Patrick Reddy. He kept this position until 1894 when he was appointed stenographer to Governor James H. Budd. Although he left the governor three months later and returned to Reddy, he later became the governor's chief adviser and an active worker of the democratic party. Mr. Drew next was a court reporter for Superior Judge Rhodes Borden and later for Judge Lawlor.

Admitted To Bar After Night Study.

Mr. Drew was admitted to the bar in 1903 after an intensive course of night study and eventually became a member of the firm of Campbell, Metson & Drew, which later became the firm of Metson, Drew & McKenzie. This firm was dissolved last year.

Married Lumberman's Widow.

Mr. Drew was married in 1900 to Mrs. Helen P. White, widow of L. E. White, the wealthy Mendocino lumberman. Shortly afterward he assumed the presidency and became superintendent of the L. E. White Lumber Co. Under his management the concern augmented its assets from $500,000 to $5,000,000 and Mr. Drew became the owner of thousands of acres of valuable timber land in this state.

Punished For Contempt.

Growing out of litigation in this county Mr. Drew was sentenced by Superior Judge J. Q. White, of this city, to three days in jail for contempt. This sentence was bitterly fought in the higher courts by Mr. Drew, but the case went against him and Mr. Drew at last, about a year ago, came to Ukiah and served his term in the county jail.

WORK PROGRESSING

Coal Mine Near Dos Rios Is Now In About Eight Hundred Feet

Officials of the Carbon Fuel Co., who are opening the Dos Rios coal field, were in Ukiah the first of the week and stated satisfactory progress was being made in the development of the coal bodies which, if all goes well, will mean a great deal to Mendocino county. A crew of men has been kept steadily at work for months and a quantity of excellent coal is being taken out daily.

Official Statement, Foot and Mouth Disease

In answer to hundreds of inquiries from all sections of the United States directed to railroad and other travel agencies, Dr. U. G. Houck, of the U. S. Bureau of Animal Industry, sent from Washington to take charge of the combined Federal and State forces that are stamping out foot and mouth disease in the limited districts of California to which it has been confined, issued the following statement:

1. There is no reason why anyone should view with suspicion California foods marketed in the state or elsewhere—meats, poultry, vegetables, fruits.

2. Travel to and from California and within the state is perfectly safe for the general traveling public.

3. With the development and co-ordination of ideas and policies and better knowledge of the situation, quarantine restrictions that were deemed necessary at first have been materially modified and are such now as not to make for any inconvenience in travel between the East and California or within the state.

4. There is no record of a human being becoming infected during any of the outbreaks of the foot and mouth disease in the United States, which dates back to 1870.

5. People planning to visit California need not allow any consideration of this cattle disease to interfere with their plans.

MEMORIAL DAY WILL BE OBSERVED IN CITY

American Legion Will Head Plans For The Occasion

Plans are not yet completed for the Memorial Day observances in Ukiah, but it has been announced by H. L. De Motte, adjutant of the Lewis White Post of the American Legion, services will be held in one of the local churches at ten o'clock following which the American Legion and local civic organizations, led by the band will march to the cemetery gates. Here the colors will be lowered and in slow march the company will proceed to the Legion lot where the usual services will be held. Guns for the firing squad will arrive this week from the presidio. Every civic organization, the schools and the lodges have been invited to participate by Mr. De Motte.

Arrested His Captain —Latter Paid A Fine

Traffic Officer Edward Pettis finds many angles to the problems of dealing with the motoring public. While returning recently from a trip to Covelo, where he collected various commercial licenses from parties doing business under private automobiles, Mr. Pettis had an unusual experience. Waiting for dinner at the hotel in Laytonville after a particularly strenuous day Mr. Pettis removed his coat and badge and sat down on the porch to rest, when he observed an automobile approaching at 45 miles an hour. Hastily donning his uniform the officer gave chase and caught his man after a run of two miles. The culprit proved to be an old friend—a captain in the Air Reserves under whom Mr. Pettis served as first lieutenant. He was taken back to Laytonville to pay a fine of ten dollars, after which he was allowed to proceed on his way to Oregon.

Poulos Will Meet A Hard Man At Eureka

Paul Poulos goes to Eureka Saturday, where on Saturday night he will wrestle Tom Ray, believed by Humboldt county fans to be unbeatable. That Ray is an exceptionally clever wrestler is established by the fact he has been defeating all comers with apparent ease. While Poulos goes to Eureka without having had his usual amount of training, none here doubt but that Ray, whatever the outcome is, will be convinced of the fact when the bout is over, he has met one of the best men he as ever encountered.

LODGE OF SORROW

The local Aerie of Eagles observed their annual Memorial Day for departed members Sunday morning when the lodge marched out to the cemetery at nine o'clock, where appropriate services were held and the graves of departed members decorated in flowers. The address of the occasion was delivered by the Rev. Albert Holland.

DANCE OPENS SEASON

There will be a big dance at Ornbaun Springs Saturday night to celebrate the opening of the resort. A fine orchestra has been obtained and the event will be made a big affair.

DR. WHITNEY ILL

Dr. Stephen Whitney, well-known member of a pioneer family of Healdsburg and uncle of Mrs. A. Perelli-Minetti, of this city, is reported gravely ill at his home in Healdsburg.

Marriage licenses have been recently issued to the following couples: Godfrey Weist and Caroline Alice Thrift; Antonio Barra and Maria Rovera; Jiles Hursey Bonds and Emma Elesta LaMott.

SCHOOL PLAY KIDS THE NON-ADVERTISER

Comedy Teaches Much Needed Lesson To Foolish Merchant

The Student Body play of 1924 promises to be one of the greatest successes the high school has ever put on. Keeping in mind "Clarence" and "Believe Me, Xantippe," the two great successes of previous years, this is saying a great deal.

No Time Lost.

One great asset to the play is that the long intermissions between acts has been remedied. The interior wall scenery will not have to be changed, leaving only the furniture to place. This should not take more than five minutes, and during this time a group of the most talented high school chorus girls will be in action.

The characters have been picked with greatest care (each one made for his part) by Miss Vestal, and the play is not one to drag, but it keeps the

William L. Reilly, Good Citizen, Dead

William L. Reilly, highly respected resident of the Navarro section of Mendocino county, died at his home May 15, 1924. Mr. Reilly was ill but a few days and his death was a shock to his family and friends. Funeral services were conducted at the Reilly home Friday, May 16, the Rev. O. G. Gibson officiating. Interment was in the Philo cemetery. Mr. Reilly was eminently regarded in the community and, beside his family, a large circle of friends will mourn his loss. He was 51 years old and leaves a wife and two sons to whom the sympathy of many is extended.

Beautiful Store Now Opened To The Public

Bigger and better, in every sense of the word, is the new store of J. H. Martensen in Standley street, now open for business. Artistically lighted and decorated and containing a varied display of high-class jewelry the new store would do credit to a much larger community and is a distinct acquisition to the better business houses of Ukiah. The fixtures and front in plate glass, marble and mahogany, were designed and placed by H. L. Bergstrom, local contractor.

The new store is an indication of the faith and judgment of business enterprise in the future of Ukiah and Mr. Martensen is being congratulated, on all sides, for his progressive move. Saturday was opening day, and the handsome store was filled with choice flowers sent by well wishers of Mr. Martensen.

NEW BEAUTY PARLOR

Acceding to the demands of the feminine world of Ukiah for service the La Belle Beauty Shoppe will shortly open for business in South State Street in the store recently vacated by the Broken Dollar Co. The proprietress, Mrs. Corinne Lindberg, recent arrival from Washington, is authority for the statement the new shop will be equipped with the latest apparatus for milady's needs.

FOUR PLAYERS SHY, UKIAH LOST SUNDAY

Healdsburg Game Next —Regular Schedule From Then On

Because Ukiah went into the game with the Star Motor Co. team of San Francisco crippled by the failure of four Ukiah players to be here, Ukiah dropped the first game of the season. Jones, Moore, Johnson and Sedwich had arranged to play, coming by automobile, but Jones overslept, consequently all four were delayed.

Had To Go On.

The crowd attending was a large one, the cost of getting the city team here was extra heavy and, learning too late four players—some of the best men on the team—would not be on hand, the only thing to do was to forfeit the game and make up the expense or go in and do the best to win. The latter course was pursued. Naturally there was some ragged playing, but the very best possible was done, all things considered.

Could Not Beat Ukiah.

The Star Motors took the game by a nine to five score. The box score below shows how the playing went. There really were no exceptionally good plays and, had Ukiah been playing with her regular team, the game would have been won here, as it is conceded the regular Ukiah team would have had no trouble in handling the visitors.

DR. R. D. MACE IS NOW IN PRISON

Former Local Physician Probably Will Get Out In A Year

Following a trial which lasted two days in superior court over which Judge Ross Campbell of Sonoma county presided, Dr. R. D. Mace was declared guilty of having obtained $1000 from Judge H. L. Preston under false pretenses. Sentence was passed upon Dr. Mace Friday—the sentence being from one to 10 years, with a recommendation made by the jury clemency be extended the convicted doctor.

What Started Case.

Dr. Mace became involved locally and in San Francisco to the extent of approximately $16,000. Early in the spring Dr. Mace went to Judge Preston and, upon the strength of a promise he would mortgage to Judge Preston certain office equipment, secured from Judge Preston $1000. Instead of executing a mortgage, however, Dr. Mace mortgaged the same property to another party and soon thereafter went to San Francisco and went through bankruptcy.

The Charges and Explanation.

Locally his creditors contended Dr. Mace had "salted" a considerable sum and had acted as he did with the idea of leaving Ukiah without paying those he owed. On the other hand Dr. Mace asserted he had contracted monthly payments on his home, office equipment, furnishings and automobile aggregating $480 a month and that, unable to meet these payments he had borrowed money and, finally, become involved. Friends of the convicted physician maintain he is more of a bad business man than a knave.

A Hard Case.

District Attorney Hurley has been congratulated on the manner in which he handled the case. The question of being able to stay in court on the charge in the indictment was a very close one and had to be handled extremely cleverly to win. The dividing line between whether Dr. Mace had secured the money under false pretenses or gotten it along a breach of faith line is one that, in the end will probably have to be determined by a decision of a high court. In any event the local attorneys are pretty well divided on the question.

Stories Not Proven.

Claims about town have been made Dr. Mace had been in financial trouble before along lines similiar to those he went through here, but this has not been established.

Wife Claims Desertion.

In Trochu, Alberta, Dr. Mace has a

One Official Is Given Praise—Other Censure

The grand jury took up the brawl which took place at a dance in Anderson Valley last week and approved of the effort said to have been made by a deputy sheriff to stop drinking at the affair. A resolution stated the officer should be commended for what he tried to do and the parties who are alleged to have disarmed him were censored. The report went on to assert the constable, supposed to have the work of stopping such violations as were said to have taken place, failed to do his duty.

DO YOU REMEMBER

Your wedding day — Happiness—Gayety — the congratulations and good wishes—and your own secret resolve to SAVE and PROSPER. Both of you had a full appreciation of new responsibilities and the effort necessary to make your dreams come true.

Perhaps since then the day of "consistent saving" has been put off —and put off—and your ideals as yet unrealized? It is not yet too late. No doubt you are better qualified through experience to renew the resolve and adjust your affairs so you may every week spend less than the family income—and bank the difference.

We Spend, Also Save--Full Beard at 4--Why Except Laborers?--Old Men Crave Learning--Money in the Bible

Americans are saving money as never before, and prohibitionists will find comfort and ammunition in that.

Savings bank deposits increased last year one billion one hundred and forty million, a good deal of money, and that's only a small part.

Other hundreds of millions were invested in real estate, bonds, stocks, etc. In the world's history there is nothing like the way in which the American people both SPEND money and SAVE money.

Savings average thirty million dollars a day, about thirty cents a day for every man, woman and child—not bad.

Yet you have pessimists predicting hard times and sensible business men actually frightened by their own talk about "a bad Presidential year."

We are indeed "fearfully and wonderfully made," and well may we praise the Lord. What horrible things MIGHT happen if our glands ran wild, as in the case of a little Russian boy four years old. He wears a full beard and has such abnormal power that he wrestles successfully with grown men and must be watched lest he strangle his playmates, having the brain of a child and no realization of power.

Doctors say the unfortunate boy has excessive development of various glands, especially the thyroid.

Marvelously we are balanced, and we should be grateful. At the Equator, temperature 140, or the North Pole, 50 below zero, the temperature of your blood remains the same, not a change of one degree, while outside temperature changes two hundred degrees.

And the earth, that floating hothouse in which you live, sails through frightfully cold ether permanently at "absolute zero," cold inconceivable to us, and we are protected from it.

Washington predicts that postal employes will get an increase of $300 a year, "all except laborers."

WHY except the laborers? Their children eat as much, wear out as many shoes as others. The Government can afford to pay its workers well, and should remember that the child of a laborer may be the most important citizen of the future, and, anyhow, should be well fed. Keats, the poet, worth ten million average human beings, was the son of a livery stable groom.

The Governor of Connecticut, past fifty, will enter Yale University, to specialize in history and psychology when his term ends, and that is normal. At fifty, men really want knowledge and value it. In early youth they crave exercise and excitement.

In childhood we lock them up in schools, forcing knowledge into them by a pumping process, when they ought to be out of doors. And when they are old we turn them out into the golf fields and let them make geese of themselves, when they really ought to be studying.

The Labor Government of England has abolished all duties on automobiles, motor cycles, moving picture films and watches—and that, in spite of Great Britain's terrific war debt.

This highly intellectual American Republic is planning a tax on radio sets, which is about as intelligent as it would be to tax school books or new ideas. To allow twenty billion dollars' worth of securities to go untaxed and put a tax on human ingenuity is foolish, to put it mildly.

Mason J. Aldrich bought a Bible at auction for twenty-five cents, and found in it two bills, one for $100, the other for $2. A wonderful bargain, newspapers call it. But there are better things than $102 to be found in any Bible. There is salvation, most important, and if you are more interested in money than salvation, as some are, you can even make money by reading the Bible.

Isaiah, Job, the Psalms stimulate the mind, make the brain work. A stimulated mind succeeds, whether in making money, or avoiding sin.

"To lend dignity to their bobbed heads," English women wear fillets of green and gold, or little spikes, in Goddess of Liberty fashion. The real dignity of a bobbed head, is a well shaped skull. Nothing is more dignified than the symmetrical head of an intelligent woman, bobbed or not. Eventually all women will cut their hair in such fashion as to show the whole forehead, the ears and the shape of the back head. But it will take time to get used to it.

Youthful Farmers In Pear Judging Contest

An orchard judging team of agriculture students from the Ukiah high school competed in an interschool orchard judging contest in Lake county on Friday, May 16. The Ukiah boys made a very good showing, as the three boys competing won second, third and fourth places. They were beaten only by Curtis Berryman, a Lakeport student who won the pruning contest held here in January. Lakeport high school won the contest by only one point, Ukiah being second and Upper Lake third. The ability to judge an orchard and tell just how good it is is quite important and Lakeport high school is to be commended for staging such a contest. The students scored three very good Lake county pear orchards on the following basis:

Location	15
Site	15
Soil	20
Trees	35
Condition of orchard	15
	100

All Did Well.

The judges of the contest were the Lake county horticultural commissioner, a leading pear grower, and Mr. Wright, of the University. They congratulated all the contestants on their ability to judge orchards. Those going from Ukiah were Ted Richey, Malcolm Beck, Norris Norgard, David Squires, and their instructor, Arthur Shultis. The first three boys represented Ukiah and stood second, third and fourth in the order named. They report the set of fruit in Lake county as being about the same as here in Ukiah Valley, perhaps a little lighter.

ANDERSON VALLEY WAS SADDENED BY DEATH

Whole Community Felt Loss When Young Lady Died

(Special Correspondence of The Press)

YORKVILLE, May 20.—A pall of sadness enveloped Anderson Valley and surrounding localities when the illness of Violet McGimsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McGimsey terminated in death Sunday afternoon about seven P. M. The sympathy of the people was attested by the immense throng which attended the services at the house—the services were conducted by Rev. Oscar Gibson, of the local Methodist church—and by the great abundance of flowers and the unusual number of beautiful floral pieces, among which were two from the student body of the high school.

More than 60 automobiles formed in the procession to the cemetery. Violet was a universal favorite at school and as teachers and pupils were too sorrowful for study school was dismissed for Monday and Tuesday. The mother and father, five brothers and one sister survive her. Mrs. McGimsey has but just recovered from a severe attack of sciatica of long duration.

Trouble At A Dance.

The dance given by the under-classes for the graduating class on the evening of May 10, was well attended and enjoyed, but was marred by a disturbance which arose between an officer and some young men. The outcome of the row at the dance was investigated by the grand jury and, while it was the sense of the members of the body an official should not be man-handled, on the other hand, there appeared to be some question regarding the establishment of the identity of the officer. A contention was advanced the man alleged to have disarmed the deputy sheriff did not know he was an official. In the meantime, however, it is stated the practice of taking liquor to dances will be stopped, if possible.

Such popularity must be deserved

POPULARITY isn't luck—there is no royal road to the spotlight. Popularity, today, means "delivering the goods!"

Last year broke all records for the number of Chesterfields smoked. Why? Because Chesterfields make good! There are loads of ordinary cigarettes—smokers want something better!

Better quality—proved by better taste—that's why men are turning by thousands from other cigarettes to Chesterfield.

Poem by Uncle John

How gladly I welcome the verdant spring onion, that sheds o'er my garden its capable breath. It's good fer my cold—or to poultice my bunion, and helps to postpone when I'm flirtin' with death! Its virtues so rare, that I gladly repeat 'em, although they are easy and well understood,—I challenge the strongholds of science to beat 'em in uplift, exclusion, perfumery and food! What matter if friends an' companions forsake me, or face t'other way when I toot my bazoo? Of course I'll repent—if my sins overtake me, and set by myself in a far-corner pew. . . . Let neighbors insult me by holdin' their noses, and hintin' that "polecats is on the increase"—the onion don't smell like the ottar of roses, but she lends her admirers contentment and peace! And, while I am keerful in idyll and lyric, and deftly avoid any statements that clash—I'm quick to repel any mental hysteric that enters my kitchen an' fools with my hash!

THE TRUTH
"—is also found in frank confession of error"

The Republican Press will be glad to receive and publish corrections of inaccuracies in its columns.

TEAM WORK NEEDED

"THE wave of enthusiasm for President Coolidge and his policies that is sweeping the country will fail of part of its object if it neglects to include senatorial and congressional candidates who are Coolidge republicans, heartily in accord with the president in his program for the public welfare. The full benefits of another term for Mr. Coolidge will not be realized by the people unless they send to Washington men who will work with the president in putting his policies into operation."

The above is taken from data sent newspapers of the country by the Republican Congressional Committee and it is very true. What is stated by the committee applies with striking force in this congressional district. Here we have an overwhelming republican section annually sending a democrat to Congress. This should not be. The republicans should hold a conference, induce the strongest republican to be encountered in the district to make the race, get all of the newspapers behind him, properly provide for his campaign, in every way, and then go out and elect a republican congressman. The wave of popularity which will sweep Calvin Coolidge into office in November will carry with him many republican congressman. This is the right moment to switch from a democratic to a republican representative in the lower house, but no time should be lost taking advantage of the situation.

HELPING A WANDERER

THE other day a traveling man happened into The Press office and related a conversation he had with a fellow traveling man who told him about having picked up an old man north of Ukiah. The traveling man said the aged wanderer, when offered a lift, got into the car and felt in his pocket for some tobacco, but could find none. When they got to the next town the traveling man got out and bought a can of tobacco for the old fellow who took it, but said nothing. At noon the traveling man bought the old man his dinner, again no word of thanks was forthcoming. That night, arriving at Crescent City, the traveling man gave his companion enough money to get a bed and said goodbye to him. Before leaving the nomad, instead of thanking his benefactor, mumbled "I'll just pass your goodness on" and then he went away.

The traveling man, who puts up excellent verse, wrote off for The Press the story of what took place—here it is:

"JUST PASS IT ON"

He didn't say thanks for the lift that he'd had
Over roads that were long, where walking was bad.
He loaded his pipe with tobacco I'd bought
With never a thanks for the comfort it brought.

BUT THIS PROVES NOTHING

The horse and mule live thirty years,
They never drink light wines and beers.

Sheep and goats are dead at twenty,
They drink no liquor—water plenty.

The dog at fifteen's mostly dead,
He looks not on the wine that's red.

At ten the cat's lost its nine lives;
On milk and water no beast thrives.

Most birds at five years pass away;
Far, far from alcohol they stay.

The bugs but few days stay on earth,
They never knew a cocktail's worth.

But evil, wicked, rum-soaked men
Survive for three-score years and ten.

MUCH TO DO

The county auditor's office is doing its utmost to see that the warrants to pay the election officials are gotten out but, as there were upwards of 600 additional warrants to be handled, in conjunction with a heavy months' county business, some delay is being encountered.

Mrs. A. L. Wessels and Mrs. G. C. Burke were over-Sunday visitors in San Francisco.

The supper that night was of my largess, too;
But never a word did he say of "Thank You."
His bed roll was thin, so I got him a bed
But never a sound like "thank you" was said.

Yet this he did say—"I'll be gone with the dawn,
Your kindness today, friend,—I'll just pass it on."
I'm thinking he thanked me the way that he should—
It brought home a truth in a way that was good.

He didn't owe thanks—'cause I just paid a debt
Of kindly deeds done me by old pals I owe yet;
So I'm thanking that stranger, now that he's gone,
For the chance that he gave me to just pass it on.

ATTRACTIONS FOR TRAVELERS

UKIAH is, according to the way autoists figure, in exactly the right location to make a stop overnight after leaving San Francisco. We have by far the finest auto park along the coast; there is every convenience here. Nowhere can a tired motorist enjoy a sweeter night's sleep in the open. Good garages abound and we boast the largest number of oil stations to be found in any town the size of Ukiah in the county. All of these possessions and advantages, of course, appeal to autoists, but this summer has given Ukiah an added incentive for tourists stopping here. The last few months have witnessed the opening of three of the most modern and best equipped restaurants to be found along the coast. We have the Palace Hotel, also which operates an excellent dining room, and The Cecille Hotel which well takes care of those who do not wish to camp in the auto park. On top of this there are good smaller hotels where the weary ones are looked after. Being in a position to accommodate travelers it is now our duty to let the world know how well off we are in that line and there is only one way to do it—Advertise through the travelers' agencies—and get motorists to stop here.

HOG RAISING WAS TRIED BY MEMBERS

Feeding Contest Of The Boys' Club Turns Out Satisfactorily

The Boys' Pig Feeding Contest conducted under the auspices of the farm advisor, the Farm Bureau and the agriculture department of the high school closed May 10. On May 15 the judges, Fred Waugh, R. D. Foote and Arthur Shultis announced the following as winners: Robert Brooks, first; Morris Norgard, second; Arnold Bogner, third, and Walter Bogner, fourth. The contest was a success in spite of unfavorable market prices of feed and hogs.

What They Did.

Walter Brooks, of Potter Valley, won the contest by feeding a 20-pound Duroc Jersey pig up to the weight of 170 pounds in three and a half months, at a cost of $6 for feed. At the end of the contest he had the best butcher hog of any of the boys and also wrote a good essay and had accurate records of his work. Robert is to be awarded the handsome silver trophy cup given by the directors of the Mendocino County Farm Bureau.

Morris Norgard, of Ukiah Valley, was awarded second prize which was $2.50 in cash, awarded by the Central Farm Center. He fed two pigs from an average of 25 pounds to 175 pounds during the contest at a cost slightly larger than the Brooks boy.

Out of the ten boys feeding pigs in this contest, eight of them made a profit, while two had a small loss. The purpose of the contest was to see if, under the present low price of hogs and high price of grain, the boys couldn't produce pork more economically by better feeding methods. They were given a difficult task and deserve a lot of credit for the good results achieved. The way the boys succeeded in getting such a large gain with such a low expense was by feeding table scraps, skim milk and lots of green feed along with their grain.

Told About His Methods.

Morris Norgard, aged 15, winner of the second prize in the pig feeding contest, wrote the following essay:

"On January 26 I joined the Pig Club contest. I joined the contest because I had pigs for a project and thought it would be interesting. I picked out two pigs that I thought were the best and separated them at once. The first few days they got back to their mother a few times but after the first two weeks I had no more trouble. I have never given my pigs a name.

"I fed them two times a day, morning and night, giving them corn, milk and some green feed. During this contest, I fed about four pounds of corn and 1¾ gallons of skim milk per day, on the average. My pigs at no time used much water although they could get it all the time.

"I have always weighed my pigs on Stilliard scales. First I tied all four feet together and hung them on the scales.

"Green pasture is a very essential thing. It is a very good thing to make cheap gains. My pigs did not have any for the first 1½ months because it was not obtainable, and they have had very little since.

"I have learned some of the ways and habits of a pig. They like a clean and warm bed on cold nights. I have learned how much it will take to fatten a young pig and how much they will eat.

"My idea of a good club member is one that is interested in his pigs and their growth."

How It Was Done.

Robert Brooks, aged 11, winner of the pig feeding contest, wrote the following essay about his experiences feeding his pig:

"When I got my pig I first gave it milk. Then I gave it some grain and milk both, and plenty of water. It would not come and eat when I was near but finally did so. Soon I could scratch her on the back and later could give her a bath. So by and by my pig became tame. Every week I would weigh her, at which time she would squeal. I kept giving her a little more feed each month. Soon she got as heavy as I and then she grew heavier. She got so I could catch her but could not hold her. I had a rubbing post in the yard but she would not rub, at least not while I was around. She had a lot of lice but I put some oil on her and killed them in a week. When the three weeks time came to fatten her I gave her corn and more grain and cut out the milk."

SOLD THEM ALL

Joe Laforet, of Redwood Valley, had a fine lot of turkeys he wished to dispose of and he came to The Republican Press to advertise them. Mr. Laforet inserted an advertisement, which he thought should run six weeks. When half that time had passed, Mr. Laforet came to The Republican Press office and asked the advertisement be taken out, as he had sold all of his turkeys. Everyone in this part of the state reads The Press and advertising in The Press classified column never fails.

Heavy Yield Reported On Ukiah Valley Farm

John H. Bogner, the Ukiah Valley dairyman, has on exhibition in the Chamber of Commerce some samples of wheat and barley raised on his ranch north of Ukiah. From 10 acres of land Mr. Bogner last week filled a 75-ton silo, fed 33 head of cows for a week and has 10 tons remaining which he will put in a barn. The wheat and barley grew to a five feet six inch height. The land is the average run of soil on the ranch and the yield, Mr. Bogner states, is not exceptional, but shows what can be produced hereabouts by intelligent management.

ORDINANCE REPEALED

The emergency ordinance prohibiting fishing in Mendocino county, recently passed by the coard of county supervisors, was repealed at a meeting of the county officials last Tuesday.

Mrs. David Babcock, of Anderson Valley, was in Ukiah last week for a short visit.

Mrs. Charles Thurow, of Calpella, was in Ukiah Saturday attending to business matters.

Mrs. Henry Brookes and her sister, Mrs. Leek, of Hopland, were Ukiah visitors Monday.

LAKE COUNTY MEN INVOLVED IN AFFAIR

Two Brothers Charged With Shooting Home Destroyer

The issuing of a warrant for the arrest of Robert Reynolds and W. K. Reynolds, brothers, Lakeport clothing merchants, on charges of assault with a deadly weapon with murderous intent, marked the start of an investigation at Cloverdale in connection with the shooting from ambush of Jack Ruth, of Lakeport, as he was returning from an automobile ride with Mrs. Reynolds, wife of W. K. Reynolds.

Brother Is Complainant.

The warrant was sworn to by Thomas Ruth, of Oakland, a brother of Jack Ruth, says the Santa Rosa Republican.

The Reynolds brothers are under surveillance in Lakeport, according to word received here, where friends are said to be rallying to their aid with a bail fund which will total $50,000 if necessary, Sheriff Boyes was told yesterday. Two deputy sheriffs will be sent to Lakeport this morning to serve the warrant, Boyes said. It is probable that the case will be heard in the justice court of Lakeport.

Complications Feared.

While the condition of Ruth was at first reported not to be serious, it is now feared that some of the shot from the gun may have pierced the abdomen. If this is the case, according to Dr. J. Walter Seawell, of Healdsburg, serious complications may result. Eighty buckshots were removed from the wounded man's hip yesterday by Dr. Seawell.

Ruth was shot, supposedly by Reynolds, as he stepped out of an automobile in which Mrs. Reynolds was seated with two of her children, William 8, and Mazine 5. After the shooting the Reynolds brothers jumped into a waiting automobile and fled to Lakeport it was declared. A divorce action said to have been filed recently by Mrs. Reynolds, charging cruelty, is believed by officers to have been responsible for the shooting. Mr. Reynolds came to Cloverdale to attempt a reconciliation with his wife, according to the officers, and became enraged when he found Ruth in the company of his wife.

CHORAL SECTION IN OPERETTA OF EGYPTIAN PERIOD

Ukiah kept its tradition for exceptional talent Saturday, when the choral section of the Saturday Afternoon Club,, assisted by Mrs. J. J. Mathews as stage director put on the boards at the school auditorium the two-act operetta, "The Egyptian Princess." The production, coming as a climax to the observance of Music Week was notable for its superb setting, reflecting the exotic beauty of the Nile, and the intelligence and grace of the participants whose excellent singing voices were a marvel and brought instantaneous success to the production. Credit for the stage setting is due Mrs. J. J. Mathews, whose artistic eye directed the arrangement of the color harmony of the stage. Ukiah clubwomen have just cause to rejoice in the affiliation of Mrs. Mathews with local clubdom because of her dramatic ability as well as the social qualities which make her a leader.

Mrs. E. B. Gibson, one of the foremost figures in the music world of Ukiah, directed the chorus and her excellent art and commendable personality were well recognized in the grace and beauty of the Egyptian marches and other features as depicted by the chorus. As so often is the case the production depended on the choruses for a large measure of the beauty and success of the operetta as a whole.

Eight vocal soloists who added greatly to the production were Miss Mary Graves as queen of Egypt; Miss Myrtle Brown as Princess Aida; Miss Shirley Perry as Princess Tababu; Miss Alice Pettis as Queen Grania; Mrs. Margaret Ford as Alva; Mrs. T. W. Maguire as Herub; Mrs. H. L. Preston as Nyssa, and Mrs. T. W. Maguire, Jr., as Phila. Entirely out of the ordinary was the solo dancing of Mrs. J. Reifschneider, lithe and graceful interpreter of the art of the Nile. Mrs. H. O. Cleland, choral leader and a clubwoman long associated with the better class of music, assumed leadership in the musical venture that revealed to the big audience that filled the auditorium the grace and talent of Saturday Afternoon Club members.

Mrs. Louis Hildreth read the epitome, her gracious personality lending charm to the lines. Mrs. R. Thomas and Mrs. Louis Hofman were at the piano, their artistry lending immeasurable support to the choral production. The personnel of the chorus included Mesdames G. W. Stout, J. H. Martensen, J. L. Taylor, Hale McCowen, Jr., Clarice Fish, E. B. Gibson, Follette Morris, Elmer Purdy, Russell Ford, I. M. Brazier, H. O. Cleland and Miss Vera Swaboda. The young girls who acted as attendants were the Misses Barbara Barker, Marian Hansen, Virginia Benjes, Hazel Buchanan, Madge Mead and Agnes Wegner. Master Billy Mathews served as herald.

RETURN HOME

Mrs. R. H. Douglas returned to her home in Oakland Friday following a visit with her sister, Mrs. B. H. Miller. Miss Bernice Douglas, local kindergarten teacher, accompanied her mother home for a week-end visit during which time she officiated as bridesmaid at a brilliant church wedding in Oakland. J. Newell Rea and his friend, William Hazlett, of San Francisco, accompanied the ladies, the party traveling in the Hudson sedan of Mrs. Douglas.

LEAVING UKIAH

Much regret is being expressed over the decision of Mr. and Mrs. John Meyer to leave Ukiah at the close of the school year when their young son, Warren, will have completed the year's school work. Both have made many friends in Ukiah, Mrs. Meyer being particularly active in club and social circles as well as in the work of the Presbyterian church. They will make their home in Oakland for the present.

W. C. T. U. MEETS

The annual county convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held in Willits May 14 and 15. Mrs. Addie G. Estes, state president, and Mrs. Anna M. DeYo, gave splendid addresses each evening. The first day was given over to the celebration of the national golden jubilee, the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union being organized in 1874. The second afternoon special services were held in honor of old crusaders and early workers. Mrs. Martha Glazier, of Ukiah, was special guest of honor, being a worker in Ohio those early days, and gave an interesting account of the work.

Mrs. Stephens, formerly Mrs. S. Beatty, daughter of the late Mrs. Parmelin Mast, represented her mother who was the first county president in 1889. Mrs. Annie Yonde, Mrs. Harriett Corbett, Mrs. De Shields, Mrs. Sara Foster represented early workers.

A motion picture film was shown in the school auditorium for the benefit of the children Thursday afternoon, "The March of Allegiance" in, Columbus, Ohio, in the fall of 1923, by W. C. T. U. women from every state in the union.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. Cora B. Conner, county president; Mrs. Martha Toles, vice president; Mrs. Maude Blake, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Alberta Williams, recording secretary; Mrs. Elizabeth Stephens, treasurer; Mrs. Elizabeth Ross Miller, auditor; Mrs. Hallie Corbett, L. T. L.

CLUB WILL MEET

The Saturday Afternoon Club will hold the final meeting of the club year Saturday. As has long been a custom the meeting will take the form of a picnic luncheon which will be served by a committee from the club at one o'clock in Mill creek canyon. Following the luncheon a business meeting will be held which will include the installation of the new officers, the personnel of whom includes Mrs. Hale McCowen, Jr., president; Mrs. C. M. Fulkerson, first vice president; Mrs. F. E. Gilmore, second vice president; Mrs. George Cook, secretary; Mrs. P. H. Joseph, treasurer. The board of council includes the first four officers mentioned and Mrs. A. F. Moulton, Mrs. R. R. Ingels, Mrs. H. O. Cleland and Mrs. S. L. Rea.

INTERESTING REPORT

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the M. E. church, south, held its May meeting Thursday afternoon in the church parlors with Mrs. Hale McCowen, Sr., presiding. An additional feature to the regular literary program was the splendid report of Mrs. McCowen, who was a recent delegate to the missionary conference of the M. E. church, south, held at Stockton. Music numbers included the presentation, by Mrs. C. R. Thomas, of four of her pupils in delightful piano numbers. The players were the Misses Beasley, Stipp, Benjes and Iversen. At the close of the afternoon fruit punch and small cakes were served and a half hour devoted to sociability, the association providing much pleasure. Mrs. C. R. Thomas was chairman of the hospitality committee.

LADIES PLAY BRIDGE IN A CHARMING FLORAL SETTING

Sweet peas and delicate ferns lent their beauty to the decoration scheme of the Saturday Afternoon Club rooms upon the occasion of the bridge tea presided over by Mrs. W. D. L. Held, Mrs. F. E. Gilmore and Mrs. C. M. Fulkerson Wednesday afternoon. The pretty flowers were arranged in baskets in an unusual artistic effect and their fragrance and delicate coloring made a pleasing setting for the party.

During the afternoon bridge was enjoyed by several score of ladies, after which there was a dainty two-course tea service at attractive small tables. The score favors, dainty hand-made luncheon sets, were awarded to Mrs. William Bromley, Mrs. T. W. Maguire, Sr., Mrs. M. H. Iversen and Mrs. A. Perelli-Minetti. Greatest of All Lincoln Plays

"The Great Commoner" to Be Presented at Chautauqua Fourth Night.

The greatest Lincoln play ever written—"The Great Commoner," by Ralph Thomas Kettering, will be given here during Chautauqua. This play has been pronounced by foremost critics of the day as the greatest contribution to dramatic literature of the age, and its phenomenal success is well known throughout the country. It will be presented by a cast of professional players coached by Elias Day, under the personal direction of the author.

The Lincoln of Kettering's masterpiece is a living portrayal of the Great Emancipator. The heroic qualities of this great war President, together with his tenderness and humor, are vividly portrayed by Kettering's pen. As enacted by that sterling actor, Jack Martin, he steps from history's musty pages and becomes a sentient being. The qualities that have thrilled us in song and story, on book page and eulogy, stand out vividly as Lincoln stirs audiences to the very gamut of deep emotion. The gaunt spector of war, the spirited thrill of romance, the pathos that moves to tears and the quaint humor that brings laughter, are all combined in this remarkable comedy-drama.

NEW BEAUTY SHOP

Roberta's Beauty Shoppe will open for business Monday in the front of the French American Cleaning and Dyeing Works in the Minetti-Wessels building in School street. The new enterprise will be conducted by Miss Roberta Hoag, daughter of Mrs. G. A. Keller of this city and a former resident. Miss Hoag has just completed a course in the latest methods of up-to-date manicuring, massaging and marcelling. ***

CLUB RESOLUTIONS

Of great interest to women affiliated with club work in California was the resolutions to be brought before the State Federation of Women's Clubs at the Pasadena convention to be held on the last days of this month. The resolutions include an endorsement of the camp fire girls' organization; opposition to the Blanket Equality amendment; endorsement for a Saturday half holiday; disapproval of the use of cigarettes by the young; opposition to the exploitation of children in suggestive songs and dances, endorsement of the Mission Play foundation; inauguration of anti-bill board campaign which means elimination of all bill boards which now mar the beauty of the state highways; endorsement of the child labor joint resolution; support of a bill for proper appropriation for maintaining the state industrial farm for women and last but not least the urge for world peace in the form of a permanent Court of International Justice. The Ukiah federated clubs will be represented by delegates at the meeting.

former wife and child. The wife insists she has been deserted by Dr. Mace and states no divorce papers have been served on her. Dr. Mace's son in Trochu is eight years old. While being examined here following his conviction Dr. Mace admitted he had been married before, but stated he had obtained a divorce in Spokane, Wash. If this proceeding had gone through the law requires that Dr. Mace's wife should have had a copy of the divorce summons mailed to her at her last address, but Mrs. Mace alleges she had no knowledge of Dr. Mace's whereabouts until she read of his being in Ukiah in a copy of The Republican Press. In letters written here Mrs. Mace states she had not been served with any papers by mail or otherwise.

Second Wife Competent.

Mrs. Phoebe Mace, who is the second wife of Dr. Mace, is a trained nurse, excellent musician and capable office woman and has, it is understood, arranged to take a position in San Francisco and work until Dr. Mace has been liberated, when she will join him.

Met Her Husband.

Dr. Mace was taken to San Quentin Sunday. At San Rafael Mrs. Mace was waiting for Dr. Mace but did not have any extended interview with him until the penitentiary was reached.

Needed A Doctor.

When Dr. Mace was delivered to the prison authorities the warden was very much pleased on learning Dr. Mace was a physician and surgeon and stated the prison was badly in need of a doctor to care for those in the prison hospital.

Likely To Serve A Year.

Because the jury recommended clemency, despite the fact the term of imprisonment runs from one to 10 years, Dr. Mace will probably be paroled after he has served a year in prison. The understanding among Dr. Mace's friends is that, upon his being liberated, Dr. Mace and wife will go to some foreign country and begin anew.

HAD GOOD TRIP

Dr. D. R. Smith and Burt Gibson took the day off Sunday and, going to a remote stream, succeeded in getting a quantity of fine fish. The trip was a hard one, but thoroughly enjoyed.

Everyone is going to see the Student Body play on May 26th. Don't miss it.

DIRECTOR'S MONTHLY MEETING WAS HELD

Farm Bureau Members Discuss Matters Of Importance

The monthly meeting of the board of directors of the County Farm Bureau was held in the morning and afternoon of May 14. The main subjects discussed were utilities, marketing exchange, foot and mouth disease, farm bureau picnic, coyote control, licenses on small farm trucks and good roads.

State Secretary Present.

Professor J. W. Nelson attended in the morning and gave a very interesting talk, telling of some of the work already accomplished by the Federation, and outlining the big program planned for the future. The major projects for the coming year include support of the Muscle Shoals proposition, the truth and fabric bill, the immigration issue, revision of income tax, and the transportation problem. A committee at Washington keeps in touch at all times with legislation there, while in California the federation is backing the Baker bill for relief of forestry problems, and the Colorado river project whereby the people of Imperial Valley are seeking relief from the ever-present menace of the Colorado river. Professor Nelson stated the work done by the utility department would justify the existence of the federation in the amount of money saved to the farmers. As a result of several years of hard fighting in the courts, The federation is working to see if some better system of distribution cannot be devised by which more people could consume the products of California at a lower price than they are now paying, and at the same time netting our people a higher price than they are now obtaining. The federation is working on such minor projects as the establishment of a better system of crop estimates, establishment of a grain exchange, egg standardization, and farm labor exchange. The executive committee has taken up with the Motor Vehicle Department the question of obtaining a reduction on the present licenses on small farm trucks.

Professor Nelson emphasized the fact the Farm Bureau and Agricultural Extension must work together, and the success of either depends upon close co-operation in all lines of work.

Picnic Postponed.

After a general discussion on the foot and mouth disease situation it was considered safer to postpone the picnic which had been scheduled to be held in Round Valley June 7. Mr. Hardison, president of the State Federation, will change his plans accordingly and attend the Board of Directors' meeting in Ukiah on the same date. In order that as many as possible can hear Mr. Hardison speak, the city hall has been secured for that date, and it is hoped that a good attendance will be had.

Good Reports From Centers.

All reports indicate that the squirrel poisoning campaign has been well carried through with very satisfactory results, and work is now being started on the weed control campaign. Potter Valley is going ahead with irrigation work. Mr. Clow and Mr. Muir from the Willits Center were present in the interest of coyote control. The newly organized Farm Bureau in Lake County was represented by three visitors.

Makes Good Impression.

Mr. Stephens, who succeeded Mr. Yates as marketing agent, has visited a number of centers, and all reports indicate he has made a very good impression. He is progressive and enterprising, and it is generally felt his work there will strengthen the organization. Mr. Stephens is putting stress on the value of maintaining quality of products if producer wishes to get the best prices possible for his stuff.

Coyote Poisoning A Success.

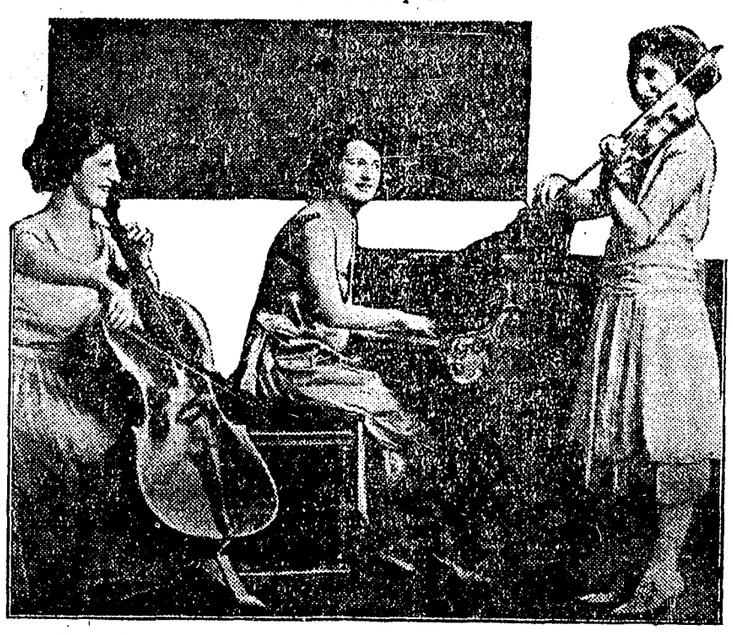
The work done is generally recognized as having accomplished a great deal of good, and the Farm Bureau has gone on record as desiring this work to be carried on to a conclusion. The stock men would like to have as many men in the field at all times as necessary, and to have the poisoning at this point continued throughout the summer.

Working For More Good Roads.

Anderson Valley and Round Valley are working very hard on road problems. Round Valley would like to have something done on the matter of the road from Dos Rios to Longvale. Anderson Valley is planning to have the Committee of Nine at their next meeting to take up the question of the McDonald-to-the-Sea highway, and the question of the pavement through the town of Cloverdale.

Something New Under the Sun!

Ralston Entertainers Demonstrate on Sixth Day of Chautauqua.



The insistent demand for "something new—something different" will be answered on this season's Chautauqua program by the Ralston Entertainers—a group of talented young ladies who will give a variety of entertainment which cannot fail to please.

Believing that the old songs are the best, these young ladies devote half their program to a group of songs, dances and music that was popular in the "sixties." Originality is the keynote of this skit, quaintness its charm and costuming its artistic setting. In the flowing robes, hoop skirts and pantalettes of the old days, they dance the now extinct minuet and quadrille and sing the melodies of the old South that never fail to stir an audience.

The first half of the program is strictly modern. Miss Kathryn Ralston, reader, is particularly gifted in dramatic lines and has a fine soprano voice. Miss Elizabeth Ralston is a mezzo soprano and cellist of great talent, while Irma Lillian Morley, violinist, is an artist in every sense of the word.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Duncan are leaving Friday for a week-end visit in Covelo.

We think it pays to advertise; do you? See Student Body play May 26.

Senator F. C. Handy left Sunday for San Francisco to be present at a meeting of delegates to the National Republican convention which is to be held in San Francisco before the delegation starts east.

Mrs. L. L. Hopkins has sufficiently recovered from her recent operation for appendecitis to be moved to her home from the hospital.

Reserve your seats for "It Pays To Advertise," May 26, at Morty's.

Byron Gowan, prominent in the affairs of the Anderson Valley section, was in Ukiah Friday and Saturday attending to business affairs.

Mrs. Fannie White is in San Francisco, having gone there to visit Miss Rowena Owsley, who is seriously ill.

UKIAH DEFEATED THE WILLITS HI PLAYERS

Nine To One Contest Was Captured By Local Boys

Wednesday Ukiah union high went to Willits to play the second game with that team. The game was won by Ukiah by a score of 9 to 1. The game was marked by heavy hitting by the Ukiah team and a great many errors by the Willits players. This makes the fourth straight win for Ukiah in a league composed of Willits, Lakeport, Upper Lake and Ukiah. Each member of the winning team of the league will be presented with a gold baseball. Lack of support and lack of funds has handicapped one of the best teams Ukiah high has had in years. Nevertheless, the team, with their coach, Mr. Beaufort, has shown the fighting spirit necessary to have a winning team. The next game will be played with Lakeport at Lakeport.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Howell, of Santa Rosa, were in Ukiah last week, where Mr. Howell was looking after ranch interests in the Ukiah valley. While here Mr. and Mrs. Howell made the acquaintance of their grand nephew, Phillip Howell Crawford, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Crawford.

Mrs. C. L. Crawford went to San Francisco Monday on business connected with the Anka Jans Trinity Church property in New York of which she is a Pacific coast director.

Where? State theatre. When? May 26th. What? "It Pays To Advertise."

ITALIAN COUNT GUEST AT C. D. TRIBUNO HOME

Count Siciliani motored to Ukiah with Dr. F. R. Carfagni, of San Francisco, and after the dinner at the Tribuno home, continued on to Round Valley where he was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Rohrbough.

ZEROLENE succeeds "EASTERN" and lubricates better

With the passing of the superstition that there is something mysteriously "better" about eastern oils, just because they cost more, Zerolene sales have increased seven-fold in the last seven years.

The following extract from a recent letter written us by the Citizens' Transfer & Storage Company of Tucson, Arizona, has some bearing on the reasons for this increase:

"Previous to using your Zerolene oils we experienced considerable trouble with eastern oils, which were much higher in price, and we found not suited to our use. We have used Zerolene oils and greases for the past five years. Our equipment (18 trucks and 2 passenger cars) is operated continuously throughout the year and the maintenance has been confined to keeping it supplied with the proper amount of oil and grease; bearings have required only reasonable adjustment after long intervals, and no replacements. We were well pleased with our recent quarterly check on the mechanical condition of our equipment, and knowing this condition to be maintained by the use of your oils and greases, we thought your company would be interested to know of our complete satisfaction."

ZEROLENE F for FORDS
—the Standard Oil Company's new improved oil for Ford cars "Feeds Those Oil-Starved Fords."

We believe that Zerolene will improve the gasoline mileage, reduce carbon deposits, and lengthen the working life of every car in which it is used.

Why pay tribute to a superstition? Insist on Zerolene even if it does cost less.

Others Appreciate The Worth Of Plant Wizard

The following story concerning Carl Purdy and taken from a recent issue of The Oakland Tribune serves to uphold the age-old theory that "a prophet is not without honor save in his own country":

A San Francisco woman who has a country place abroad, retained Wallace, who is considered the greatest rock garden authority in the world, to make a planting for her. When Wallace learned that she was from California, he said: "Of course you know Carl Purdy." The San Francisco woman confessed she had never heard of him, whereupon Wallace expressed the opinion Mr. Purdy was the greatest garden man in the western world." I thought of this story when I met Mr. Purdy a few days ago. It is not often he comes down to the Bay from his garden paradise near Ukiah, but when he does some of our most distinguished people who appreciate true worth feel honored in his company. Mr. Purdy told me a story I should find hard to believe if it came from anyone but him. He said once when he was camping in the high Sierras he came across a brawling spring at an elevation of 6000 feet whose water was so cold it was impossible to drink it. "I had to dip up a canful and put it in the sun to warm before it was fit to drink," he told me. But Mr. Purdy does not often talk about wonders. He is rather a silent man and he works wonders in co-operation with nature, letting other people talk about them. He has never had much publicity.

MACHINES COLLIDE

An automobile collision Sunday between a Ford sedan driven by Sam Ray and owned by the Banker and Fuller agency, and a machine driven by an Italian who resides near the observatory, attracted a crowd of onlookers about six o'clock. The accident occurred at the corner of South State and Gobbi streets and indications point to the Italian being to blame. The sedan was badly damaged but the occupants escaped injury.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Thornton and children, of Potter Valley, visited Ukiah relatives Sunday.

NOBODY SPARED

Kidney Troubles Attack Ukiah Men and Women, Old and Young.

Kidney ills seize young and old.
Often come with little warning.
Children suffer in their early years—
Can't control the kidney secretions.
Girls are languid, nervous, suffer pain.
Women worry, can't do daily work.
Men have lame and aching backs.
If you have any form of kidney ills you must reach the cause—the kidneys.
Doan's Pills are for weak Kidneys—
Have brought relief to Ukiah people. Ask your neighbor.
Ukiah testimony proves it.

Mrs. P. S. Shields, 308 Clara avenue, says: "I can recommend Doan's Pills from experience. I have used them for attacks of kidney complaint when my back ached severely and made me miserable. I had frequent headaches and my kidneys didn't act right. Doan's Pills soon relieved the backaches and all other symptons of kidney complaint."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mrs. Shields had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

THEY NEVER FAIL

Dr. Ralph Blend had an extra bed and not having any use to which it could be put, he decided to dispose of it. Of course he advertised in The Republican Press and following one insertion of the ad in The Press, the bed was sold. Classified advertisements in The Republican Press never fail.

If your eyes trouble you, see Dr. J. P. Lowe, the Optometrist, at 208 State street. Maybe a good pair of glasses, properly fitted, would stop the trouble. 45-tfc

CHINESE CHECK MAN NABBED

Alert Fort Bragg Official Has Celestial Wanted In County In Jail

(Fort Bragg Advocate)

It does not often happen a Chinese resorts to forgery. However, Fort Bragg last week presented an instance of that kind when Quon D. Cheng was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Ward Ries and charged with forging a check on a local bank, also for writing a check on a Marysville bank, which he cashed with a local Chinese merchant, and which was returned marked "no funds." In April the prisoner cashed a check in San Francisco for $50, which was drawn on a local bank and signed George Lee. He apparently figured he had put over this deal successfully and made some easy money, so tried it again. The second time he drew a check for $105 on a Marysville bank, signing this one Lew Ling, and cashed it in this city. This was returned unhonored and the Chinaman was soon taken into custody.

Raymond Milne left Friday for San Francisco, following a brief visit with relatives here.

La Verne Scott was here from Santa Rosa for a week-end visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Scott.

Low Rates—Good Service Put California in the Lead

BY pressing a button you command electricity for light, heat, and power.

Behind that button stands a great organization, on the job day and night, in fair weather and foul, in your service.

For that service in California you pay the lowest rates in the United States—rates fixed by your own agents, the Railroad Commission; rates that do not guarantee profits.

There is about one horsepower of developed electric energy for each three persons in California and each horsepower can do the work of ten men in one eight-hour shift. This great electric giant is your servant.

That is why California has more residence lighting consumers than New York and more industrial power consumers than any other State.

This condition was brought about by the initiative and foresight of power companies like the P G and E and its predecessors, who risked their money to do it. They do not ask thanks, but they do think they are entitled to fair play.

Fort Bragg Marshal Raided Gambling Den

Early Monday morning Marshal John Barney, of Fort Bragg, aided by Night Marshal Conklin, made a successful raid on the house of Lee Ling, Chinese merchant, and rounded up six Chinamen and five white men who were charged with gambling. Officers Barney and Conklin were in hiding in a vacant lot nearby, waiting for an opportunity to enter the place. Finally a Chinaman came along and when the door was opened for him Marshal Barney followed him in, but before Officer Conklin could make his entry the door was closed in his face. It is stated Marshal Barney found about 30 men in the room gambling and most of them made a hasty exit through numerous doors in the place, provided for such emergency. Marshal Barney, unaided, succeeded in holding 11 of the gamblers. The men were taken before Judge Whipple Monday forenoon and the city treasury has been swelled $600 by the fines collected from them.

"SOUR GRAPES" GIVEN OVER 2,500 TIMES

Edward Amherst Ott Comes to Chautauqua With Famous Lecture.

Announcement that Edward Amherst Ott, considered the best lecturer on the American platform today, will deliver his famous "Sour Grapes" here during Chautauqua week, sharpens the anticipation of local audiences to the point of enthusiasm. It is like hearing that the President will address Chautauqua, only Ott will make a better talk. This is not said with any disrespect to the national executive. It is a well-known fact that our best-known public speakers are often referred to as "nearly as good as Ott."

A lecturer who submerges self to the glory of his message is refreshing. Ott is such a man. He is said to have perfected the art of lecture technique to the point of such well-organized thought that his ideas are promulgated in natural sequence and implanted in the public mind as indelibly as a picture or a great event.

ROUND VALLEY WILL SEE INVASION SUNDAY

Many Intend Going To Covelo By Auto—Take A Band

Many Ukiah people are arranging to go to Covelo in the auto caravan Sunday. The object of the trip is to promote a closer relationship between Ukiah people and those of Round Valley. Also a new road is wanted by the Covelo people to connect with the Redwood highway. The boosters will assist in trying to accomplish the step about to be undertaken. A motor caravan of about 150 automobiles from Ukiah and other points will journey to Covelo for the day. It is hoped every one who can possibly join in the trip will do so. Last week the Willits municipal band volunteered its services and will probably join the party from Ukiah when Willits is reached. The plan is to have the individual members take with them their own baskets and thus not make it necessary for Covelo people to go to the trouble and expense of serving a meal.

FOUR PLAYERS SHY

Round Valley, the boys have decided to go to Healdsburg, but, after Sunday, the regular schedule will be maintained. At Healdsburg Sunday a strong line-up will confront the Sonoma visitors and Ukiah will in all probability defeat her rivals. The four players absent last Sunday will be on hand at Healdsburg.

APPEAL DENIED

"Blackie" Davis Has Been Left With Little Hope By High Court

Although his case from the start was almost a forlorn one, Attorney A. L. Wessels has made a stubborn fight to save "Blackie" Davis from the penitentiary, following his conviction on a statutory charge, the victim being a 16-year-old girl, who has since died, and following receipt of news the appelate court had denied a motion for a new trial, Mr. Wessels will appeal to the supreme court for a rehearing.

WENT TOO FAST

Jake Updegraf was arrested Thursday by Marshal Cleland and charged with reckless driving. He was taken before Recorder Pierson who revoked his license for a period of 30 days. Cases tried before Judge Pierson last week included a charge against P. S. McCarty for driving his car across a fire hose. He was fined $20. J. W. Wild was fined $10 for parking his car overnight on the street and H. Waltermire paid a fine of $35 on a charge of reckless driving of a motorcycle with the cutout open.

RESIGNS POSITION

Because his private interests necessitate all of his time J. H. Holtze, who has been the capable representative of the Stewart Fruit Co. here for some time, resigned his position the first of the month. D. D. Lyttle, who has been connected with the Stewart Fruit Co. in the Napa district, has arrived and assumed the duties formerly looked after by Mr. Holtze. The new representative, as was Mr. Holtze, is a thorough fruit man.

HAS NEW BROUGHAM

Attorney A. L. Wessels, of this city, has ordered a handsome Jewett brougham through the Banker and Fuller agency here. The new car is said to be the last word in comfort and class.

PEONIES ARE LOVELY

Peony shipping at "The Terraces," the mountain gardens of Carl Purdy near Ukiah, is at its height now and will continue for four or five weeks. In an interview the famous owner of "The Terraces" states "a bad winter is a good winter" for flower shipping, the heat and dryness bringing the flowers to perfection early while the prices are good and the Decoration Day demand at its height. The peonies are shipped in the bud and placed in cold storage until needed. After a few hours' exposure to heat and light they reach a perfection of bloom.

Forrest W. Thurston, lineman for the Snow Mountain Water and Power Co., and a brother of Mrs. R. O. Foster, of Talmage, was in Ukiah Monday inspecting local power lines.
